Canna Accommodation

Lag Nam Boitean, Canna

Lag Nam Boitean is a single-storey cottage which is extensively renovated with a new extension. The accommodation is only about 200 metres away from a beautiful sandy beach with the machair behind, which has the most wonderful display of wild flowers in the spring and early summer. Lag Nam Boitean is great for people who appreciate flora and fauna and would like to enjoy their walks through the hills without being disturbed by lots of other visitors.

Lag Nam Boitean is a National Trust for Scotland property, open all year round and bookable through their website at <http://www.nts.org.uk/Holidays/Accommodation/Lag-Nam-Boitean-Canna/> or telephone 0844 493 2108.

The Bothy, Canna

This is a traditional one-and-a-half storey cottage which sits on the site of the original 17th-century Canna House. This cottage is the perfect place to spend your holidays if you wish to enjoy Scotland's natural beauty while a pure sea breeze refreshes your senses. A visit to the Isle of Canna is tonic for the soul and staying in the cosy accommodation provided by the National Trust for Scotland makes it even better.

The Bothy is a National Trust for Scotland property, open all year round and bookable through their website at <http://www.nts.org.uk/Holidays/Accommodation/The-Bothy-Canna/> or telephone 0844 493 2108.

Kate's Cottage

Kate's Cottage is a traditional stone built cottage which sleeps up to eight in bunkhouse style and has a fully fitted kitchen and shower room. It is reached via a steep track up the hillside and has views across the island to Sanday and Rum

Kate's is a favourite with bird watchers and microlighters.

For information about Kate's Cottage or to book, please contact 01687 462 963 or email sconnor@nts.org.uk.

Burnbank

Burnbank is a traditional crofting cottage around the bay on Canna's satellite island of Sanday. Burnbank sleeps four in two twin rooms, and has all mod cons, including broadband connection and a telephone.
